

Managing Mavericks - Rebels with a cause?

Masterclass with Lembit Öpik and Laura Hawes

The definitive guide to getting the best from your mavericks

Have you experienced difficulties managing a maverick in your organisation?

Do you feel that your organisation would benefit from managing your mavericks more effectively?

Do you want to see your mavericks as an opportunity rather than a risk?

Managing Mavericks - This Leadenhall Masterclass is led by Associate Directors Lembit Öpik and Laura Hawes, two experienced and highly energetic professionals from the worlds of Politics and Business

This Leadenhall Consulting Masterclass is designed for managers, leaders and executives who wish to enhance their capabilities in understanding and getting the best out of their mavericks

After the Masterclass you will demonstrate:

Skills in identifying mavericks within your organisation

Techniques to trouble shoot the main sources of friction generated by mavericks

Techniques to recognise and understand the difference between authentic and synthetic mavericks

An understanding of the triggers for both authentic and synthetic maverick behaviour

Techniques for managing your mavericks effectively – minimising the risk and maximising the opportunity

BIOGRAPHIES:

Lembit Öpik was Global Training & Development Manager for Procter & Gamble before serving for 13 years as an MP. A skills trainer since 1986, Lembit has delivered numerous, highly effective workshops across a range of topics to a wide range of audiences. His highly energetic and engaging style is very popular with participants.

Laura Hawes has held senior executive positions in HR, Operations, Customer Service and Programme Management across three industries working for British Airways, Securicor and Fidelity Investments and holding Board Level positions in the latter two. Laura, an experienced trainer, has also worked as a Consultant within organisations and independently.

LEADENHALL
CONSULTING
people – performance – results

To book yourself on one of our open courses or to discuss running an in-house event please visit leadenhallconsulting.com, email events@leadenhallconsulting.com or call 0203 544 5101